

EMBRACING POSSIBILITY FAMILY DAY:

WHAT MORE IS POSSIBLE

AUGUST 2, 2025

10:00 AM – 3:00 PM

TUBMAN AFRICAN AMERICAN MUSEUM
MACON, GA

Join us for a morning of family, creativity, and community at the Embracing Possibility exhibit. This special event highlights the power of storytelling, art, and civic engagement through the voices of two mothers and their sons.

Being an Artist in Voting and Civic Engagement

Derek and Teresa Heard will guide a discussion on using creativity for civic change. Explore identity, artistry, and activism—and bring your questions for a community Q&A on how to engage meaningfully in today's world. 10AM - 12:00PM

Readings from "Noahland"

Noah and Naomi Williams share inspiring readings from the imaginative world of "Noahland". Through storytelling, this mother-son duo invites us to dream big and imagine new worlds of belonging. 1-3:00PM
