

The mission of the Georgia Council on Developmental Disabilities (GCDD) is to bring about social and policy changes that promote opportunities for persons with developmental disabilities and their families to live, learn, work, play and worship in Georgia communities.

GCDD'S 2020 PUBLIC POLICY:

Gracie's Law

DISABILITY IN ALL POLICY!

Georgia kicked off the 2020 legislative session with a new public policy team - Dr. Alyssa Lee and Charlie Miller. The council approved changes which allowed GCDD to engage with legislators to ensure people with developmental disabilities are considered in ALL policy, focusing on Gracie's law, DD Waivers, competitive employment and more. Advocacy Days by the Numbers

- 221 were able to educate and inform their legislators about issues important to them
- 276 felt better informed/trained on issues impacting individuals with developmental disabilities
- 292 plan on continuing to advocate on behalf of people with developmental disabilities

Over 650 disability advocates registered to attend the 2020 GCDD Advocacy Days at the Georgia State Capitol - making it the biggest series the DD Council has hosted since inception of the initiative. Four days focused on policies affecting people with disabilities and brought together advocates from across the state to speak with their elected officials. Read more here.

Real Communities Celebrates 10 Year Anniversary

2010 10 2020

Ten years ago, GCDD's Real Communities Partnerships began to partner with local groups that worked to support communities who welcomed all to the table and utilized everyone's gifts and skills. The impact of this effort has expanded into Welcoming Community Dialogue groups who work towards a community that offers dignity and justice for all. Read what's happening here.

2020: THE YEAR OF THE PANDEMIC

CORONAVIRUS COMMON SYMPTOMS

- FEVER
- COUGH
- SHORTNESS OF BREATH

GCDD RESPONDS TO COVID-19

The Georgia Developmental Disabilities Network was created to address issues and concerns related to COVID-19 through weekly forums that provide guidance and resources to the people with developmental disabilities across the state. GCDD's web resource page includes regional, statewide, national and international information regarding the outbreak of COVID-19.

★ MAKE YOUR VOTE COUNT ★

REGISTER TO VOTE

[THE DISABILITY VOTE COUNTS 2020]

GCDD focused on the 2020 presidential election, which saw key national and state seats up for grabs. GCDD stressed the importance of the disability vote and offered information about accessibility, transportation and what to expect at the polls. Due to the COVID-19 pandemic, this campaign season was unlike any in modern history. Read more here.

Summer 2020

Across the state, students graduated from the nine inclusive post-secondary education (IPSE) programs across Georgia. Meet our grads as they celebrate this milestone by share their stories and their advice for incoming students or those considering attending an inclusive post-secondary education program. 6,000 WAITING

GCDD's documentary film, 6,000 Waiting, tells the powerful stories of three Georgians with developmental disabilities impacted by the lack and complexity of state Medicaid waiver funding. With persistence, courage, and self-determination, they fight to access the resources they desperately need to live life on their own terms. Read more or watch the trailer here.
